Winchester, Va., October 16.—The sixth annual convention of the Frederick County Sunday School Association began this evening in the First Christian Church here with a large attendance, some of the classes of many schools being present in a body. The musical features, rendered by the united choirs, under the direction of Professor George Shepard, are unusually attractive. The principal address of the opening session was a discussion of "Bible Class Work," by W. W. Millan, of Washington, president of the Sunday School Association of the Baltimore Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and an officer of the national organization. Thomas C. Diggs, State secretary, of Richmond, is to make several addresses to-morrow, as will also pastors of Winchester and Frederick County churches and laymen. L. A. Adams, of Stephens City, is president, and J. Harvey Canter, of the same place, is secretary. The association is one of the largest and most prosperous in Virginia.
